This Year's Fire Prevention Week Theme is "Protect Your Family From Fire."

Essay Rules and Content (Grades 5-8):

Please submit one typewritten, or two neatly handwritten double-spaced pages. Only one essay per student may be submitted. This year's theme is "Protect Your Family From Fire". Essays should reflect this theme including items like proper placement, testing and replacement of smoke and CO alarms. Discuss how the community, schools and fire departments can work together to educate and ensure that fire safe techniques and procedures are known and followed. A panel of judges will choose a first, second and third place winner in each grade level. First place winners will receive a plaque and a check for $100 from FASNY. Second and third place winners will receive a FASNY certificate. Teachers will be notified of winners by March 1, 2012, and at that time, award presentations can be set up.
