

4th Annual Fire Service Women of New York State Phoenix Firecamp: July 18 - 23, 2010

The Fire Service Women of New York State will be hosting our 4th annual Phoenix Firecamp this summer, July 18 - 23, in Utica, NY. If you know of a young woman between the ages of 14-19 who is interested in fire or emergency services, this is a great opportunity.

Phoenix Firecamp is a weeklong overnight camp which introduces young women to firefighting and EMS. Campers reside at the Utica Fire Academy - a restored Utica firehouse - for the week. All instruction is provided by career and volunteer women firefighters and EMTs from across New York State.
